

Rural Prep Grand Rounds (Pre-work for April 2020)

Resource 1: RHI hub: Project ECHO® – Extension for Community Healthcare Outcomes: <https://www.ruralhealthinfo.org/project-examples/733>

Question 1. Project ECHO stands for

- a. Excellent Community Health Operations
- b. Extension of Care to Hospital Outpatients
- c. Extension for Community Healthcare Outcomes
- d. Excellent Care for Healthy Outcomes

Question 2. Project ECHO offers which of the following services?

- a. Direct support from specialists to primary care providers (PCPs) on patient cases
- b. Increased knowledge for PCPs through shared case-based learning and mentorship
- c. Assistance with patient treatment plan development and monitoring
- d. Opportunities to participate in research are provided, but are not mandatory
- e. All of the above

Question 3: ECHO: One-minute video – ECHO exponentially increases access to quality care by moving _____ instead of _____

- a. Patients; Knowledge
- b. Knowledge; Patients
- c. Specialists; Community Providers
- d. Community Providers; Specialists

Resource 2: 10 Questions You Should Consider for Specialist Consultations

The Hospitalist. 2016 March;2016(3) <https://www.the-hospitalist.org/hospitalist/article/121853/10-questions-you-should-consider-specialist-consultations>

Question 4: What is the first question to ask before requesting a consult?

- a. “If I were the consultant, what would I want to know?”
- b. “Where can I meet with the consultant to discuss the case?”
- c. “How can I nurture my relationship with the consulting team?”
- d. “Am I sure I want a curbside consult?”

Question 5: Closing the communication loop is one of the most important aspects of the consult because it allows you to act on the recommendations.

- a. True
- b. False

Resource 3: ECHO case form

Question 6: Which of the following lab investigations require you to record both the current and previous values in the form?

- a. TSH
- b. Creatine
- c. GFR
- d. HbA1C